Continuation, page 1 of 3, extended answer to question 5.

During 2005, I served as General Secretary-Treasurer of the International Union of Operating Engineers (IUOE) from January 1, 2005 through February 28, 2005. Effective March 1, 2005, I became General President of the IUOE.

Continuation, page 2 of 3, extended answer to question 14(a).

During 2005, I served as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield of New Jersey (Horizon BCBSNJ), a non-profit organization providing health care services. As Chairman of the Horizon BCBSNJ Board, I presided over numerous meetings of the organization's Board of Directors, as well as similar meetings of related entities and chaired various Committees of the Board; I also served the organization in other leadership capacities, including officially representing the organization at certain business and charitable functions. For my services to the organization, I received a total of $181,900.08 in compensation, which was provided in the following amounts from three entities that are part of the greater Horizon organization: 1) Horizon Health Care Services, Inc.—$173,500.08; 2) Horizon Healthcare Plan Holding Company, Inc.—$6,000.00; and 3) Enterprise Holding Company, Inc.—$2,400.00. Horizon has also advised that my pro rata portion of a Board holiday event and dinner on 12/7/05 was estimated at $200.

Lets see now $181,900. for one full time job with Blue Cross, $393, 349. for another full time job with the IUOE and another job with the Casino Reinvestment Development Authority of NJ. No wonder why people are calling Vince Giblin hogzilla, he's the biggest hog at the IUOE trough. Isn't it amazing, most IUOE members would like just one good job.
